

Cedar Shakes

A Cedar Shake is a rustic-looking roofing shingle. It has been hand split, replicating the look of an ax or mallet cut. They are rough and variable and almost always used for roofing.

Available Size & Profiles:

Item	Length	Thickness	Exposure	Grade	Coverage
Medium Shakes	24"	1/2" - 3/4"	10"	#180% Edge Grain	20 Sq Ft/Bundle
Heavy Shakes	24"	3/4" - 5/4"	10"	#180% Edge Grain	20 Sq Ft/Bundle
Heavy Std Shakes	24"	3/4" - 5/4"	10"	Standard 100% Flat Grain	20 Sq Ft/Bundle

Heavy Shakes are also available in Class C Fire Treated and CCA Treated

Features & Benefits:

- Naturally beautiful and adds tremendous curb appeal
- Extremely durable & of the absolute highest quality
- 100% sustainable & natural
- Significantly more environmentally friendly than asphalt shingles
- Random widths for natural variety

 PRODUCT	Cedar Shakes
 SPECIES	Cedar
 USAGE	Roofing

Cedar Shakes

Profile:

Medium Shake
1/2" - 3/4" Thick

Heavy Shake
3/4" - 5/4" Thick

Heavy #1 Blue Label

Heavy Standard Grade

Accessories:

Item	Length	Grade	Coverage
Hip & Ridge	24"	#1 Blue Label 100% Edge Grain	16-2/3 LF
#3 Starter	18"	#3 Grade	50 Sq Ft
#4 Undercourse	18"	#4 Grade	50 Sq Ft

Number 3 Black Label

Number 4 Undercourse

Hip & Ridge

24" Long, uniform tapersawn works for both shingle or shake roof.

#4 Undercourse Shingles

Designed to be a starter layer to build your shingle or shake roof on.

Scan QR Code to Learn More:

